

Reserves and Environment, Health and Safety Committee Terms of Reference

The Reserves and Environment, Health and Safety Committee (the "Committee") of the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Cequence Energy Ltd. (the "Corporation") will have the oversight responsibility, authority and specific duties as described below.

Composition

The Committee will be comprised of three or more directors as determined by the Board, none of whom shall be an officer or employee of the Corporation or any subsidiary of the Corporation. In addition, a majority of the Committee members shall satisfy the independence and experience requirements, if any, of applicable securities laws, rules or guidelines, any applicable stock exchange requirements or guidelines and any other applicable regulatory rules. Determinations as to whether a particular director satisfies the requirements for membership on the Committee shall be made by the Board.

Members of the Committee shall be appointed by the Board. Each member shall serve until his or her successor is appointed, unless they shall resign or be removed by the Board or shall otherwise cease to be a director of the Corporation. The Board shall fill any vacancy if the membership of the Committee is less than three directors.

The Chairperson of the Committee may be designated by the Board or, if it does not do so, the members of the Committee may elect a Chairperson by vote of a majority of the full Committee membership.

Communication, Expenses and Authority to Engage Advisors

The Committee shall have access to such officers and employees of the Corporation and to the Corporation's independent qualified reserves evaluator(s), and to such information respecting the Corporation, as it considers to be necessary or advisable in order to perform its duties and responsibilities.

The Committee provides for a means of direct communication for the Board with the independent qualified reserves evaluator(s). The independent qualified reserves evaluator(s) shall have a direct line of communication to the Committee through its Chairperson. The Committee, through its Chairperson, may directly contact any employee in the Corporation as it deems necessary, and any employee may bring before the Committee any matter on a confidential basis involving the matters which the Committee's terms of reference may cover.

The Committee has the authority to engage independent counsel and other advisors as it determines necessary to carry out its duties and to set the compensation for any such counsel and advisors. Any engagement of independent counsel or other advisors is to be at the Corporation's expense.

The Corporation shall be responsible for all expenses of the Committee that are deemed necessary or appropriate by the Committee in carrying out its duties.

Meetings and Record Keeping

Meetings of the Committee shall be conducted as follows:

- the Committee shall meet at least once annually at such times and at such locations as the Chairperson of the Committee shall determine to permit timely review of the Corporation's statement of reserves data and other oil and gas information, the report of management and directors on oil and gas disclosure and the report of the independent qualified reserves evaluators on reserves data and public disclosure in respect thereof. The Chairperson of the Committee shall hold in camera sessions of the Committee, without management present, at every meeting;
- the Chairperson of the Committee shall preside as Chairperson at each Committee meeting and lead Committee discussion on meeting agenda items;
- the quorum for meetings shall be a majority of the members of the Committee, present in person or by telephone or by other telecommunication device that permits all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other;
- a resolution in writing, signed by all of the members of the Committee, is as valid as if it had been passed at a meeting of the Committee;
- if the Chairperson of the Committee is not present at any meeting of the Committee, one of the other members of the Committee who is present at the meeting shall be chosen by the Committee to preside at the meeting;
- the Chairperson shall, in consultation with management and the independent qualified reserves evaluator(s), establish the agenda for the meetings and instruct management to circulate properly prepared agenda materials to the Committee with sufficient time for study prior to the meeting;
- every question at a Committee meeting shall be decided by a majority of the votes cast; in the event of a tie vote on any matter, such matter shall be presented to the Board for its consideration and determination;
- management shall be available to advise the Committee, shall receive notice of meetings and may attend meetings of the Committee at the invitation of the Chairperson of the Committee; and
- a Committee member, or any other person selected by the Committee, shall be appointed at each meeting to act as secretary for the purpose of recording the minutes of each meeting.

The Committee shall provide the Board with a copy of the minutes of such meetings. Where minutes have not yet been prepared, the Chairperson shall provide the Board with oral reports on the activities of the Committee. All material information reviewed and discussed by the Committee at any meeting shall be referred to in the minutes and made available for examination by the Board upon request to the Chairperson.

Responsibilities

The Committee is part of the Board. The Committee has been established for two main reasons. Firstly, the Committee has been established to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities generally and under National Instrument 51-101 Standards of Disclosure for Oil and Gas Activities (as amended, supplemented or replaced from time to time) ("NI 51-101") with respect to the oil and natural gas reserves evaluation process of the Corporation and public disclosure of reserves data and related information in connection with the Corporation's oil and gas activities. Secondly, the Committee has been established to assist the Board in fulfilling its responsibilities in relation to, environmental, health and safety matters, including monitoring and overseeing the Corporation's policies and procedures for ensuring compliance by the Corporation with environmental regulatory requirements and ensuring that employees are provided with a safe environment in which to perform their duties.

The Committee should have a clear understanding with the independent qualified reserves evaluator(s) that the independent qualified reserves evaluator(s) must maintain an open and transparent relationship with the Committee and the Board, and that the ultimate accountability of the evaluator is to the Committee and the Board.

Specific Duties

Reserves Evaluation Functions

The Committee shall:

- review at least annually, the Corporation's procedures relating to disclosure of information with respect to the oil and gas activities of the Corporation, including its procedures for complying with the disclosure requirements and restrictions of NI 51-101;
- review annually the qualifications and independence of the qualified reserves evaluator(s) to be appointed or re-appointed by the Board and in the case of any proposed change in the reserves evaluator(s), determine the reasons for the proposed change and whether there have been any disputes between the appointed reserves evaluator(s) and management of the Corporation;
- review at least annually the Corporation's procedures for providing information to the reserves evaluator(s) for the purposes of its report on reserves data of the Corporation under NI 51-101;
- before recommending that the Board approve the filing of the statement of reserves data and other oil and gas information of the Corporation, the report of management and directors on oil and gas disclosure and the report of the reserves evaluator(s) on reserves data with the applicable regulatory authorities, meet with management and each of the reserves evaluator(s) to:
 - determine whether any restrictions affect the ability of the reserves evaluator(s) to report on the reserves data of the Corporation without reservation; and
 - review the statement of reserves data and other oil and gas information and the report of the reserves evaluator(s) on reserves data;
- review the content and filing of (a) the statement of reserves data and other oil and gas information, (b) the report of reserves evaluator(s) on reserves data, and (c) the report of management and directors on oil and gas disclosure as contemplated by NI 51-101 and make a recommendation to the Board as to whether to approve the content and filing of such documents;
- review any public disclosure or regulatory filings with respect to any reserves or resources evaluations and oil and gas activities, including any material change reports containing such information, and the compliance thereof with applicable regulatory requirements, and, if appropriate, make recommendations to the Board as to their approval for the release or filing thereof;
- co-ordinate meetings with the Corporation's Audit Committee, the Corporation's management, the reserves evaluator(s) and the external auditor as may be determined advisable by the Committee to address matters of mutual interest or concern in respect of the Corporation's evaluation of oil and natural gas reserves and resources; and

- perform any other activities consistent with this mandate and, generally, governing laws as the Committee or the Board deems necessary or appropriate.

Environment, Health and Safety Functions

The Committee shall:

- report to the Board on matters coming before the Committee relating to environmental, health and safety policies and activities of the Corporation for consideration;
- review and monitor the environmental policies and activities of the Corporation on behalf of the Board to ensure that the Corporation is in compliance with environmental laws and legislation and that the Corporation conforms with industry standards;
- review and monitor the health and safety policies and activities of the Corporation on behalf of the Board to ensure compliance with applicable laws, legislation and policies as they relate to the health and safety of the Corporation's employees in the workplace;
- review environmental, health and safety compliance issues and incidents of non-compliance to determine, on behalf of the Board, that the Corporation is taking all necessary action in respect of those matters and that the Corporation has been duly diligent in carrying out its responsibilities and activities in that regard;
- review significant external audit or consultants' reports relating to environmental, health or safety matters;
- review significant legislative and regulatory changes including policy proposals and modifications that could materially impact the Corporation;
- review and report to the Board on the sufficiency of resources available for carrying out the actions and activities recommended; and
- report on a timely basis and at least annually to the Board on environmental, health and safety issues and on the state of compliance with applicable laws and legislation and adherence to the policies of the Corporation.

Review of Terms of Reference

The Board shall review and reassess the adequacy of these terms of reference at least annually, and otherwise as it deems appropriate. Such review shall include the evaluation of the performance of the Committee against criteria defined in the Committee and Board terms of reference.
